10. [] LIAISON Anne Harley, Library of Congress, called and requested a map of Liechtenstein for the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Antitrust & Monopoly. She said any size we had would be alright. I said I would check and be back in touch.

11. [] LIAISON I called Frank Potter, on the staff of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Subcommittee on Energy and Power, and told him we had collected the documents on [] provided to the former Joint Atomic Energy Committee and told him that he and Pete Stockton, also on the Subcommittee staff, were welcome to review the documents here at Headquarters at their convenience. He said he would talk to Stockton, who will get back to me with a date.

12. [] LIAISON Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, called saying that he had recently transferred Gwen Strand to his front office staff and asked what procedure should be followed to obtain a compartmented clearance for her in order that she be able to handle incoming compartmented documents from the Agency. I told Mr. Brady that I would have [] call Joyce, in his office, and explain what is necessary.

25X1 6. [] LIAISON Betsy Wolf, G. Robert Blakey, Gary Cornwell, Michael Goldsmith and Dan Hardway, House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, visited C&R Staff to review Agency material.

25X1 7. [] LIAISON Spoke with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and covered the areas of interest of the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee relating to the ownership of Air Taxi and asked that he let us know if there is any feeling that we are not cooperating since we are bending every effort to be as responsive as possible.

✓ I also asked him if he understood the full picture regarding the treaties between the DCI, the Secretary of State and the President concerning the role of the ambassador and the various implementing instructions. I said we wanted to make sure that he did so that he would be in a position to correct any misimpression caused by today's New York Times story. Later in the day, Miller called indicating the story had caused some controversy and it was agreed we would send down to him copies of the four messages which constituted the complete instructions.

I talked with Miller and urged that he do whatever is possible to file the Committee report on Ambassador Carlucci, which was approved unanimously, as we were looking towards a swearing-in date of 8 February and there has to be time for Senate action and processing of the papers in the White House. Miller promised to do what he could and later advised the report had been filed.

25X1 8. [] LIAISON Called Tom Latimer, Staff Director, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, and asked if he needed anything further to understand the instructions that have been issued concerning the role of the ambassador. He thought it would be a good idea to have a complete set of the instructions and they were provided later in the day.

25X1 9. [] LIAISON In the absence of Bob Thomson, White House Congressional Liaison staff, talked to Regina Mellon explaining the bind we were in in meeting our target of the swearing in of the DDCI next Wednesday. She said she would see what she could do, including the turn around time for processing the papers within the White House.
